WELCOME TO LEWIS & CLARK STATE PARK

Lewis and Clark State Park is a 616-acre camping park situated in one of the last major stands of lowland old-growth forest in the state. Coniferous trees, streams, wetlands, dense vegetation and wet prairie comprise the park environment. A Civilian Conservation Corps (CCC) park, many of the buildings constructed by the CCC remain in use today. The park has 8 miles of hiking trail, including 5 miles of equestrian trail that trace through the green, vibrant old-growth forest and along a creek.
