WALLACE FALLS STATE PARK

WELCOME TO WALLACE FALLS STATE PARK

Wallace Falls State Park features some of the most scenic areas in western Washington. This 1,380-acre camping park features shoreline on the Wallace River, and Wallace, Jay and Shaw lakes.

Tucked into the west side of the Cascades Mountains, the park features numerous waterfalls. Enjoy views of Middle Wallace Falls (capitalize Middle), which drops from (notice you have an extra space here) a height of 265 feet. The park also has large coniferous forests, backcountry lakes and fast-moving rivers and streams. Opportunities to view local wildlife abound, including peregrine falcons that inhabit the rock cliffs of the Index Town Wall. The park is popular for hiking, mountain biking, wildlife viewing and rock climbing.

AMENITIES + FACILITIES

- 2 kitchen shelters, one with electricity, one without
- 5 sheltered + 5 unsheltered picnic tables, all first come, first served.
- Boat ramp at nearby Big Eddy on the Skykomish River.
- .25-mile interpretive trail
- Access to nearly 20 miles of hiking trails + 5 miles of mountain biking trails.
- Restrooms, one near cabins with showers.
- Interpretive panels throughout the park.

OVERNIGHT ACCOMMODATIONS

2 walk-in campsites 20-50 feet from parking area, very private with picnic tables + fire rings. All available on a first-come, first-served basis.

2 backcountry campsites at Wallace and Jay lakes. Sites require a 4- to 7-mile hike and have picnic tables, fire rings and outhouses. All sites are near lakes. Available first-come, first-served.

The park has five reservable cabins with access to Wallace Falls and Wallace Lake. Cabins have covered porch, picnic table, fire ring, electric heat, lights, locking doors, bunk beds that sleep three and a full-size futon bed for two. Cabin C3 and C4 are pet friendly.
